

NASH CEO SPOTLIGHT:

Greg Sandfort

Tractor Supply Company

NEWS FLASH: TRACTOR SUPPLY CO

Tractor Supply Company (TSCO) just announced its 4th stock split since 2002. CEO Greg Sandfort tells us why. (6.775% of fund holdings as of 9/30/13)

Q To what do you attribute Tractor Supply Company's recent performance?

A We are very fortunate to serve a solid customer base, who are committed to living the rural lifestyle. We are dedicated to being their most dependable supplier of basic maintenance products necessary to care for their home, land, pets and animals throughout the year. At Tractor Supply Company, we pride ourselves in providing high quality products and superior customer service, which has helped us to achieve 22 consecutive quarters of Y-O-Y transaction count increases.

Q What's next for Tractor Supply Company?

A We will continue to focus on growing and improving our business to better meet our customers' evolving needs. In addition to opening more than 100 stores annually, we are in the process of constructing a new Store Support Center in the Maryland Farms area of Brentwood to serve as our corporate office for many years to come. This facility is scheduled to open in August 2014. Our growth should create continued job opportunities for those in middle Tennessee.

What's an ETF?

Exchange Traded Funds are funds that track a specific index. When you buy shares of an ETF, you are buying shares of a portfolio that tracks the yield and return of its underlying index.

Nashville Area ETF, Invest In What You Know.

All ETF products are subject to risk, which may result in the loss of principal. Investment in smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility. The Fund will invest substantially all of its assets in the securities of companies that have their headquarters or principal place of business located in the Nashville, Tennessee region. The Fund may be impacted by events or conditions affecting the region to a greater extent than a fund that did not focus its investments in that manner. The fund is expected to invest a relatively large percentage of its assets in the healthcare sector and negative performance of the sector will negatively impact the fund. Diversification may not protect against investment loss.

Carefully consider the Nashville Area ETF's investment objective, risk factors, and charges and expenses before investing. This and other important information can be found in the Nashville Area ETF's Prospectus, which may be obtained by calling 855-480-NASH (6274). Read it carefully before investing.

ETF shares are not redeemable with the issuing fund other than in large Creation Unit aggregations. Instead, investors must buy or sell ETF Shares in the secondary market through the assistance of a stockbroker. In doing so, the investor may incur brokerage commissions and may pay more than net asset value when buying and receive less than net asset value when selling.

An active secondary market for the Fund's shares may not exist. Although the Fund's shares will be listed on an exchange, subject to notice of issuance, it is possible that an active trading market may not develop or be maintained.

SEI Investments Distribution Co. is the distributor for the Nashville Area ETF.
